

Kidney failure, the terminal stage of chronic kidney disease, is a leading cause of death in Nigeria. Studies indicate that Nigerians may have advanced kidney impairment (Auth). Many patients present late, often in end stage kidney disease.